Another groovy selection of free-lovin' revolutionary classics from the era of protest and invention, with eighty-four sixties greats arranged with full lyrics and guitar chords. Whether you're looking for the sweet soul crooning of Bobby Darin, the suave cockney class of The Kinks and The Small Faces, or the folk-inspired delicacies of Simon And Garfunkel and The Byrds, you'll find those special nuggets of nostalgia in this bumper collection. Every song is presented in the key of the original hit recording, and the songs themselves include Waterloo Sunset, Mellow Yellow and I Can't Explain. The popular 101 Songs For Easy Guitar series, packed to the limits with 101 chart-favourites for easy guitar, reaches its fifth volume! Book 5 features some of the best songs by the best songwriters and performers, old and new; timeless tunes from the likes of Travis, McFly, Badly Drawn Boy, Franz Ferdinand and Paul Simon. Even if you're a beginner just getting to grips with the basics, you'll be able to start playing these songs quickly and easily. For more experienced players this songbook will tell you exactly how the bands played these songs so that you can add them to your repertoire, or create your own unique versions of each song by playing around the basic melody or chord progression.

Covers British and American artists and groups, including a biography or history and chronological discographical listings in each entry.

The 60s, 'A Very Peculiar History' is a nostalgic celebration of those gloriously giddy years. Filled with fascinating trivia and quirky facts about the Swinging Sixties, David Arscott uniquely explores what made the sixties so different and how the decade has influenced the world today. From a timeline of pivotal historical world events to examining London, 'a city steeped in tradition, seized by change and liberated by affluence', as well as memorable fashions, food, film and music of the decade. Written by an author who was there and does remember it, 'The 60s, A Very Peculiar History' will delight readers young and old.

"Started a Joke" is a song by the English-Australian rock band Bee Gees from their album Idea, which was released in September of that year. Curiously, it was not released as a single in the UK, where buyers who could not afford the album had to content themselves with a Polydor version by Heath Hampstead. The song's B-side was "Kilburn Towers." But in France, "Swan Song" was... Vaclav Havel is revered as one of the 20th-century's great playwrights, dissidents, and honest champions of democracy. In this study, John Keane reveals a Havel so far unseen, dramatising the key moments of joy, misery, triumph and tragedy on which his life has turned.

This collection of 51 essays contains rich memories of Singapore's broadcasting pioneers based in their station atop Caldecott Hill. ON AIR captures the breadth and depth of their experiences over 82 years on the Hill; from the founding in 1936 of the British Malayan Broadcasting Corporation, to Radio and Television Singapore (RTS), to Singapore Broadcasting Corporation (SBC), and finally to what is today, Mediacorp. In this book, the writers have recorded eight decades worth of work experiences and have shared untold stories from the Japanese Occupation of Caldecott Hill, to the fascinating behind-the-scenes happenings that cast light and well known and well loved shows. Illustrated with rare, archival photographs, many not seen before, this publication is the first of its kind that gives an insight into the development of broadcasting in Singapore.

New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself, while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.
